

FUND FACTS

Investment Style

All-Cap Value

Investment Objective

Long-term capital appreciation

Investment Strategy

The Fund invests in securities that the RS Value Team believes are undervalued. The Fund will typically invest most of its assets in equity securities of small-, mid-, or large-cap companies. The Fund may invest in securities of issuers located globally, and may invest any portion of its assets outside of the U.S. The Fund will likely hold a more limited number of securities than other mutual funds. The Fund's investment team conducts fundamental research to identify companies with improving returns on invested capital.

Investment Team

The RS Value team searches for good businesses led by strong management teams, and invests when a stock's price reflects an attractive valuation. We believe this approach will result in superior long-term risk-adjusted returns.

Past performance does not guarantee future results. The performance data quoted represents past performance and current returns may be lower or higher. The investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost. To obtain performance information current to the most recent month-end, visit www.vcm.com. Returns include reinvestment of dividends and capital gains. Performance for periods greater than one year are annualized. Fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements were in place for some or all periods shown, without which, fund performance would have been lower.

An investor should consider the fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing or sending money. This and other important information about the fund can be found in the fund's prospectus, or, if applicable, the summary prospectus. To obtain a copy, visit www.victoryfunds.com. Read the prospectus carefully before investing.

All investing involves risk, including the potential loss of capital. In addition to the normal risks associated with investing, investments in smaller companies typically exhibit higher volatility. International investments may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuations in currency values, differences in generally accepted accounting principles, or economic or political instability. Non-diversified funds can be more susceptible to economic or credit risks than diversified funds.

Not all share classes are available to all investors. Please read the prospectus for details.

Active Share is a measure that compares the proportion of security holdings within the product against those of the respective benchmark. The value represents the percentage difference between fund and benchmark. Alpha is the excess return of a fund relative to the return of a benchmark index. Beta is a measure of the volatility, or systematic risk, of a security or portfolio relative to the market or a benchmark. R-squared is a statistical measure that represents the percentage of a fund's or security's movements that can be explained by movements in a benchmark index.

Portfolio Turnover Ratio – Last 12 Months (LTM) is a measure of trading activity in a mutual fund portfolio of investments for the past year that indicates how often investments are bought and sold. Funds with high turnover may incur more transaction costs than funds with low turnover and may subject shareholders to taxable capital gains distributions. Information Ratio is a measure of the value added per unit of active risk by a manager over the benchmark. The Information Ratio is calculated by dividing the annualized excess return over a benchmark by the annualized standard deviation of excess return. Sharpe ratio is the average return earned in excess of the risk-free rate per unit of volatility or total risk.

The Russell 3000® Value Index is an unmanaged market-capitalization-weighted index that measures the performance of those companies in the Russell 3000® index with lower price-to-book ratios and lower forecasted growth values.

The Fund is distributed by Victory Capital Services, Inc., member FINRA, an affiliate of Victory Capital Management Inc., the Fund's investment adviser.
